

KATIE JILLSON

BOSTON SINGING PIANIST

Music That Brings People Together

Live vocals and piano for weddings, cocktail hours, restaurants, wineries, private celebrations, and special events.

Whether it's a wedding ceremony, an intimate dinner, a lively cocktail hour, or a special celebration, I strive to create an atmosphere where people can relax, connect, and enjoy the moment.

I began playing piano and singing as a child and went on to earn my undergraduate degree from New England Conservatory and my master's degree from Longy School of Music. Over the past decade, I've brought those two musical paths together as a singing pianist, performing for weddings, private events, and special occasions throughout the Boston area. Every performance is rooted in authenticity, artistry, and a genuine love for the music.

Inspired by artists including Sara Bareilles, Sarah Vaughan, Judy Garland, the Indigo Girls, Maria Callas, Barbra Streisand, and the Eagles, I perform a blend of jazz standards, Broadway favorites, timeless classics, and contemporary songs, creating meaningful moments for every audience.
